

PROGRAM: Administration for Native Americans (ANA) Grant

AGENCY: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Administration for Native Americans (ANA)

DESCRIPTION: Provides financial assistance through grants or contracts to further the three goals of the ANA: governance, economic development and social development.

ELIGIBLE USES:

- Technical assistance and training to develop conduct and administer projects.
- Funding to public or private agencies to assist local residents in overcoming special obstacles to social and economic development.
- The following organizations are eligible to apply for grants with the Administration for Native Americans (ANA):
 - Federally recognized Indian Tribes;
 - Consortia of Indian Tribes;
 - Incorporated non-federally recognized Tribes;
 - Incorporated nonprofit multi-purpose community-based Indian organizations; and
 - Urban Indian Centers;

PROGRAM/LOAN STRUCTURE:

- Maximum Program Benefits: Up to 80% of program cost, however, no set maximum or minimum grant amount.
- Terms: Single or multi-year.

QUALIFICATION CRITERIA/COMMENTS:

- Approximately $5 million in grants are distributed during three closings each fiscal year, usually in February, May and October.
- Grant applicants must establish their own budgets.
- Visit the homepage at <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/ana/index.html> , the regional page at <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/region6/> , or phone the Dallas office at 214-767-9648.