

PROGRAM: New Mexico Compensating Tax Exemption

AGENCY: Taxation and Revenue Department

DESCRIPTION: Compensating tax is an excise tax imposed on the privilege of using property in New Mexico. When property is purchased outside New Mexico and brought into the state for use a compensating tax is due on the value of the property.

PROGRAM LOAN/STRUCTURE:

- Maximum Program Benefits: Allows an exemption on the value of tangible personal property purchases outside New Mexico and used by a governmental entity or a business using the property for projects financed using Industrial Revenue Bonds (IRBs).
- Rate: The compensating tax rate is 5%.

QUALIFICATION CRITERIA/COMMENTS:

- This exemption can only be taken by governmental entities or businesses using tangible personal property for projects financed using IRBs.
- This exemption does not apply to the use of property that is incorporated into a metropolitan redevelopment project or the use of construction material.
- See Section 7-9-14 NMSA 1978.
